THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK OF May 11th, 2008

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

One's body is derived from the flesh and blood of the mother. The amount of sacrifice involved in giving birth to a child and rearing that child with continuous care and love is beyond description. The food you eat, the clothes you wear, the life you lead are all the gifts of your parents. If you do not honour your parents who are verily the 'creators' in human form, how can you learn to honour the Creator in Divine Form? One's primary duty, therefore, is to please one's parents – only thus can one's debt to them be discharged. Nor is that all, the debt to one's parents can also be fully discharged by rendering service to society.
